

ALEUT FACILITIES RECEIVES CONTRACT AWARD FROM US GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

ALEUT TO PROVIDE SERVICES TO GSA LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO (October 25, 2010) – Aleut Facilities Support Services, LLC (www.aleutfacilities.com) announced today that it received a contract award from the US General Services Administration’s Pacific Rim Regional Office for a three-year base contract to serve the facilities support services requirements of GSA’s complex of federally-owned property in Las Vegas, Nevada. The contract includes provisions for an additional award of three, two-year options as well, for a potential total performance period of nine years.

Lloyd D George Federal Building and US Courthouse

Under the new contract, AFSS will provide operational and maintenance services for the Foley, Alan Bible, and Lloyd D George Federal Buildings and US Courthouse located at 300 Las Vegas Blvd. Speaking of this contract award, Mario Cafiero, President/COO of Aleut Facilities Support Services said, “Aleut Facilities Support Services is honored to have earned the continued trust of the General Services Administration. This important contract complements Aleut’s performance of similar support activities with GSA in Sacramento and at the Denver Federal Center in Colorado.”

“We value our place on GSA’s team and look forward to serving GSA and the tenant organizations that will rely on the services we will provide at these Las Vegas properties.”
